year for the spectacular exhibit July 10.

Building ships in bottles, scrimshawning and welding metal sculpture are among the exciting crafts to be performed both inside and on the grounds of the Museum and Carriage House at Church and Baptist Streets.

Under the artistic genius of Mrs. David H. McCormack, a large, enthusiastic committee has begun stirring up widespread interest in the exhibition. Application blanks are being returned at a rapid rate for cataloguing by Mrs. Harlan C. Broadwater; tickets are selling "like hot cakes" under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Michaelson and a large acquisition and hanging committee is being formed by John E. Atkinson.

Charles W. Ganzel, Jr. is arranging for display accommodations for craftsmen both in the Carriage House and in two large tents to be erected on the lawn; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Dunn are handling various promotional activities and Mrs. Alicia S. Crabbe is in charge of newspaper and radio publicity. Mrs. Murray H. DeCoffe is organizing a crew to work at the snack bar, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Searle are programming music for the event including a coffeehouse corner.

THIRD RACE OF SATURDAY SENIOR RACES

On June 19th the Mattapoisett Yacht Club held the third race in the June series of the Saturday Senior Races. Moderate southwest winds and sunny skies combined for perfect sailing conditions, as seven boats vied for top honors in two classes.

Susan McGowan, skippering Gryphon, was the victor in the Handicap division, as was Tom Clark for the Corinthians.

Starting at Ned's Point, the Handicap fleet completed a 9.85 mile course to Barstow Rock Red Nun 6, to Bow Bells Black Can 11, to Nye's Ledge Black Bell 9a, to Angelica Point Red Nun 2, to Mattapoisett Ledge Black Can 1, and to finish.

Susan McGowan was out front all of the way, with John Malcolm's Witch of Agnesi

The Corinthians, following a slightly shorter four-legged course, went to Sunken Ledge Black Can 5, to Bow Bells Black Can 11, to Nye's Ledge Black Bell 9A, and to finish at Ned's Point.

Art Blackburn in Lorelei, on a starboard tack, was first over the starting line. By the time the Corinthians had rounded the second mark, Billy Mee in Irish Eyes was on top, only to see Tom Clark's Instead pull away on the third leg (a long beat) and increase his lead to win by almost three minutes. Bill MacLean's Escape was third.

Capeway League

Denny Millette, with seven consecutive hits including a home run and double, paced Linhares' to a pair of very important Capeway Softball League victories. The key win was a 7-3 conquest of league-leading Capeway Cafe Sunday, Linhares' second straight over the Cafe 9. Earlier in the week Linhares' pounded out a 15-5 verdict over Rochester. As a result of their winning efforts, Linhares' has moved into undisputed possession of second place, just one game behind Capeway as the season nears the halfway mark. Also starring for Linhares' at bat and in the field were Jim Hubbard and Bruce Reed. Both turned in superb defensive games against Capeway.

The Cafemen, meanwhile, earned a split for the week, previously whacking the Mattapoisett Merchants 15-10. Rochester Men's Club, after four consecutive losses, put it together Sunday with a convincing 11-7 whacking of Fish on the Wharf. The Men's Club jumped to a quick 5-0 lead and went on to win easily. Glen Reed provided the heavy ammunition with a home run over the right field wall and a pair of two-baggers.

The regular season reaches the halfway point with the playing of Wednesday night's game and if the race continues as wide open as it has so far, the Championship is up
